

Holy Trinity Anglican Church, Metcalfe
PENTECOST SUNDAY MAY19, 2024
Reverend Michael Fleming

Fr. Michael: As we gather as a Spirit-led and Spirit-fed community, we acknowledge that the places we call home and this sacred space of Holy Trinity lie on the unceded territory of the Algonquin Anishinaabe people.

People: Let us continue to seek true reconciliation and renewal between all peoples on this good land which we have been given by the Creating One.

Fr. Michael: Holy Spirit, we pray that you would fill our hearts with joy, love, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness and self-control. Renew us and kindle the fire of faith brightly within us. Make us bold witnesses to the truths of the Holy Scriptures which you inspired. Assist us in our prayers, that they may be acceptable to our heavenly Father, who with you and Jesus are one in God, one Lord now and forever.

All: Amen (The Reverend Arnold Ruddat from re:Worship)

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Fr. Michael: Almighty and everliving God, who fulfilled the promises of Easter by sending us your Holy Spirit and opening to every race and nation the way of life eternal, keep us in the unity of your Spirit so that every tongue may tell of your glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

All: Amen.

Fr. Michael: The wind at our backs, we entered Jerusalem, only to watch Him die on the cross. It spiralled so quickly— Trial, Torture, Crucifixion, Death. But, on the third day the Breath of God blew new life into our futures – forty days with the Risen Lord, Before He ascended, Jesus reminded us that the Spirit will come. It was on Pentecost when the wind breathed into each and every one of us. Sacred Breath, move through this place; unlock your Son within your people and breath into us your hopes and dreams for a world filled with peace, justice and love.

All: Amen (Tim Graves from LiturgyBits)

Reader: A reading from the word shared with Ezekiel (37:1-14) The hand of the Lord came upon me, and he brought me out by the spirit of the Lord and set me down in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones. He led me all around them; there were very many lying in the valley, and they were very dry. He said to me, "Mortal, can these bones live?" I answered, "O Lord God, you know." Then he said to me, "Prophecy to these bones, and say to them: O dry bones, hear the word of the Lord. Thus says the Lord God to these bones: I will cause breath to enter you, and you shall live. I will lay sinews on you, and will cause flesh to come upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am the Lord." So I prophesied as I had been commanded; and as I prophesied, suddenly there was a noise, a rattling, and the bones came together, bone to its bone. I looked, and there were sinews on them, and flesh had come upon them, and skin had covered them; but there was no breath in them. Then he said to me, "Prophecy to the breath, prophecy, mortal, and say to the breath: Thus says the Lord God: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live." I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood on their feet, a vast multitude. Then he said to me, "Mortal, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They say, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are cut off completely.' Therefore prophecy, and say to them, Thus says the Lord God: I am going to open your graves, and bring you up from your graves, O my people; and I will bring you back to the land of Israel. And you shall know that I am the Lord, when I open your graves, and bring you up from your graves, O my people. I will put my spirit within you, and you shall live, and I will place you on your own soil; then you shall know that I, the Lord, have spoken and will act," says the Lord.

The Word of the Lord

People: Thanks be to God

Reader: O God, you come to us in unexpected places – in isolation, behind closed doors; on dusty roads as we go from place to place; in video chats with friends and telephone conversations with loved ones. You come bringing us peace where there is not peace; you come bringing us hope when everything seems hopeless; you come bringing us courage when we are afraid. Come and be among us now in every place where we are. Open our eyes to see you, open our hearts to know you. In the name of the Risen Jesus we pray.

All: Amen

Reader: Our psalm for this new day is from Psalm 104 (Psalm 104: 25-35)

O Lord, how manifold are your works! in wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures. Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, creatures both small and great.

People: Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

Reader: There move the ships, and there is that Leviathan, which you have made for the sport of it. All of them look to you to give them their food in due season. You give it to them; they gather it; you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.

People: Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

Reader: You hide your face, and they are terrified; you take away their breath, and they die and return to their dust. You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; and so you renew the face of the earth.

People: Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

Reader: May the glory of the Lord endure for ever; may the Lord rejoice in all his works. He looks at the earth and it trembles; he touches the mountains and they smoke.

People: Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

Reader: I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; I will praise my God while I have my being. May these words of mine please him; I will rejoice in the Lord. Hallelujah!

People: Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

Reader: A reading from the Acts of the Apostles (Acts 1: 1-21) When the day of Pentecost had come, the apostles were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine." But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: 'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

The Word of the Lord

People: Thanks be to God

Reader: God of wind and fire, on this Pentecost Sunday we are more aware than ever of our deep need for you. It's true that we don't know how to pray, how to form on our lips the words that express the prayers that linger in our hearts. Thank you for the gifting of the Holy Spirit – the gift of the Comforter, Teacher, Inspirer Translator of every soul's deepest needs. Guide us and bless us today. Free us from whatever safeguards we have placed around ourselves to keep our lives and our worship predictable and safe. Free us to meet you in new ways so that your Spirit may dance in our midst and inspire us to love and service in Jesus' name.

All: Amen (written by Sue from RevGalBlogPals)

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Fr. Michael: The Holy Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ according to the Blessed St. John (15: 26-27; 16: 4-15) People: Glory be to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Fr. Michael: Jesus said to the disciples, "When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning. I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgement: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgement, because the ruler of this world has been condemned. I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

This is the very Gospel of Christ.

People: Thanks be to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

Fr. Michael: Empowered by the Spirit, we affirm " We believe in one God,

All: the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Reader: Great God, you wrap us around with your great love like a mighty, gentle mother and you carry us like a strong and tender father, setting us on our feet to be your free, mature and joyful daughters and sons. Now in our weakness we pray to you because we cannot come through life's troubles unscathed; and with souls and bodies stressed and strained, we cannot meet each other's needs without your Holy Spirit.

People: Holy Spirit, come with healing power; Spirit, gift of Christ, fill us with God's love.

Reader: Great God, we come to you with the Resurrected Christ who bore the weight of human flesh and blood to Calvary for your love's sake; and even now, as conqueror of death, he pleads for all your suffering children.

People: Holy Spirit, come with healing power; Spirit, gift of Christ, fill us with God's love.

Reader: We pray for your Church which has been touched by the fire of the Spirit and which sees and responds to the hurting of the world with your compassion, care and tenderness. We pray especially today for Shane, our Bishop; Anne, our Metropolitan; Linda, our Primate; as well as The Anglican Council of Indigenous Peoples, The Rt Rev Christopher Harper, National Indigenous Anglican Archbishop, Sacred Circle Events, and the Ministry of Reconciliation. We pray for The Parish of Maberly-Lanark St. Alban's, Maberly, St. John's, Balderson, St. Paul's, Lanark, St. Stephen's, Bathurst, and The Reverend Dr. Ron Hunt. We pray for those of our parish family who are in need of your healing touch Kelly, Marilyn, Liesa, Louise, Randy, Marjorie, Beth, Howard, Irene, Richard, Deb, Jeanette, Cheryl, and Zachariah.

People: Holy Spirit, come with healing power; Spirit, gift of Christ, fill us with God's love.

Reader: We join our prayers with the prayer of Christ for those who are ill or troubled and for all your children who live beyond our knowledge; we know that all are brought home to your heart in the prayers of Jesus and in the silent intercessions of the Spirit which come from your deep heart to ours and returns to you with our deepest longings. Hear us and help us, comfort and strengthen us, deepen our joy. Let our love for others reflect your mighty tenderness and help us to serve through your healing embrace.

People: Holy Spirit, come with healing power; Spirit, gift of Christ, fill us with God's love.

Reader: Eternal God, there is such great longing in the world; people are desperate because of the suffering they endure. Mother Earth cries out for peace; the oppressed cry out for justice; women, men and children weep in sorrow and pain. How can we have any hope for the world unless you are with us? Through all the mystery of pain, sorrow and human vulnerability, we dare to believe that you are on our side, that your love for us is greater than our love for you or for each other. Call us, then, to prophesy! By the lives we live, by our compassion and our patience, by our belief in the future which you are making for us, let your Church proclaim the great things that you are doing, with hope for the nations of the world, for every person born and every living creature.

People: Holy Spirit, come with healing power; Spirit, gift of Christ, fill us with God's love.

Reader: So, Living God, let praise begin, here and with us now, welling up from our hearts, rising towards the skies until praise for you fills the universe and joy is unconfined; as you delight in us and we delight in you for evermore.

All: Amen

Fr. Michael: At Pentecost, we were gifted with Spirit- power to be your Church and your faithful servants. This we cannot do alone, so now we pray,

People: God, you have given each of us many gifts but sometimes we cannot recognize what gifts we have to share so we hide them under a basket. God, you remind us that all gifts are needed, but sometimes we let ourselves be convinced that some gifts are more special than others. God, you call us to work but sometimes we decide that membership in the body is limited by our understanding and our prejudices. God, for the times when we have ignored or mislabelled your gifts, for those times when we have cut others off from your body the Church, we bring to you words of repentance and ask for your forgiveness and your grace.

Fr. Michael: God is the gifter of MANY gifts. God is the Creator of ONE body. God is slow to anger and quick to forgive and helps us to honour and to share the gifts of all; God helps us heal the wounds and reunites the fellowship. Know that you are forgiven, accepted and enfolded in God's arms of hope and love through the Holy Trinity of Father, Son and Spirit.

All: Amen (from Rev Gord Worship/Offerings)

Fr. Michael: May the peace of the Living and Loving Lord Jesus be with you all.

People: And also with you.

Fr. Michael: Giver of life, receive all that we offer you this day. Let the Spirit you pour upon your Church continue to work in the world through the hearts of all who believe. We ask this in the name of Jesus the Lord.

All: Amen

Fr. Michael: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Fr. Michael: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Fr., Michael: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Fr. Michael: We give you thanks and praise, almighty God, for the gift of a world full of wonder, and for our life which comes from you. By your power you sustain the universe.

People: Glorify to you for ever and ever.

Fr. Michael: You created us to love you with all our heart, and to love each other as ourselves, but we rebel against you by the evil that we do. In Jesus, your Son, you bring healing to our world and gather us into one great family. Therefore, with all who serve you on earth and in heaven, we praise your wonderful name, as we say,

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Fr. Michael: We give you thanks and praise, loving Father, because in sending Jesus, your Son, to us you showed us how much you love us. He cares for the poor and the hungry. He suffers with the sick and the rejected. Betrayed and forsaken, he did not strike back but overcame hatred with love. On the cross he defeated the power of sin and death. By raising him from the dead you show us the power of your love to bring new life to all your people. People: Glory to you for ever and ever.

Fr. Michael: On the night before he gave up his life for us, Jesus, at supper with his friends, took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "Take this, all of you, and eat it: this is my body which is given for you." After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is the cup of my blood, the blood of the new and eternal covenant, which is shed for you and for many, so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me."

People: Glory to you for ever and ever.

Fr. Michael: Gracious God, with this bread and wine we celebrate the death and resurrection of Jesus, and we offer ourselves to you in him. Send your Holy Spirit on us and on these gifts, that we may know the presence of Jesus in the breaking of bread, and share in the life of the family of your children.

People: Glory to you for ever and ever.

Fr. Michael: Father, you call us to be your servants; fill us with the courage and love of Jesus, that all the world may gather in joy at the table of your kingdom. We sing your praise, almighty Father, through Jesus, our Lord, in the power of the Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

People: Glory to you for ever and ever. Amen.

Fr. Michael: As Jesus has gifted to the Spirit Church, we pray,

People: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Fr. Michael: Holy God, holy and strong,

People: Holy Immortal One have mercy on us.

Fr. Michael: Lamb of God,

People: You take away the sin of the world.

Fr. Michael: Holy God, Lamb of God,

People: Grant us your peace.

Fr. Michael: The gifts of God for the children of God.

People: Thanks be to God

Fr. Michael: Father, may we who have received the eucharist live in the unity of the Holy Spirit, that we may show forth his gifts to all the world. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

Fr. Michael: O Holy Spirit, on that first Pentecost Sunday you came upon your people, granting them your special gifts. Through the work which you empowered them to do, souls were saved and the name of Christ was glorified. Today we pray that you would continue to enter our hearts and fill us with stronger faith in Jesus and a firmer desire to please you with godly and goodly works.

Fr. Michael: Use us to accomplish your saving will for the society in which we live to the praise of Jesus, who lives and reigns with you and the Father, one God now and forever.

All: Amen (Arnold Ruddat from re:Worship)

All: Glory to God, whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

Fr. Michael: Deep peace of the running wave to you, deep peace of the flowing air to you, deep peace of the quiet earth to you; deep peace of the shining stars to you; deep peace of the Prince of Peace to you. May the strength of God guide us this day; may God's power preserve us; may the Holy Spirit Wisdom instruct us. May the eye of God watch over us, the ear of God hear us, the Word of God give gentleness to your speech and may the hand of God defend us. May we follow the way of God this day and always and may the great Creating Spirit give birth to healings and visions that have never been seen before. And may Abba our Creator, Jesus our Liberator and the Spirit who is Holy bless us and keep us now and always. Amen. (from the Holy Wisdom Celtic Community)

Fr. Michael: Go now and live as one body of Christ. Be at peace and care for one another. Suffer with one another and rejoice with one another. Give your attention to the Word of God. And may God delight your heart and sharpen your vision; may Christ Jesus keep you, thought and word, in his grace; and may the Holy Spirit be the fountain that sustains you all and binds you together as one in the Spirit and one in the Lord. Now, GO!
